HAVE YOUR SAY ABOUT THE FUTURE OF THE ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION AUTHORITY

A major independent inquiry has been commissioned by the Minister for Environment, Climate Change and Water to look at the future role of the Environment Protection Authority (EPA), Victoria’s environmental regulator.

Chair of the Independent Inquiry into the EPA, Penny Armytage has released a public Discussion Paper, schedule of public consultations, and an interactive website. We are calling on all Victorians to have their say on the future of the EPA. The Inquiry is seeking to better understand individual, community and business needs, so the EPA can be well equipped to meet Victoria’s future challenges.

Upcoming public consultation events in Melbourne:
- Ringwood - 23 September
- Richmond - 28 September
- Frankston - 13 October
- Sunshine - 21 October
- Dandenong - 22 October

Upcoming public consultation events in Regional Victoria:
- Bairnsdale - 29 September
- Traralgon - 30 September
- Horsham - 7 October
- Ballarat - 8 October
- Bendigo - 12 October
- Geelong - 19 October
- Mildura - 27 October

Visit our website to register your attendance, make a submission or to explore other ways you can join the discussion.

Connect with us:
Email: info@epa-inquiry.vic.gov.au
Twitter: @EPA_Inquiry
Facebook: www.facebook.com/epainquiry
Phone: (03) 9948 2882.